The Oldest Printer.
Troy Times, November 11.

Next Tuesday (the 15th) will be Thurlow Weed's birthday, and he will then enter his eighty-fifth year. This renders him the oldest of American printers except Franklin, who was three months older at the time of his death. Wm. Bradford, who first established a press in this city, lived to be ninety, but he was an Englishman and learned his trade in the old country. Weed possesses his faculties to a remarkable degree, and, indeed, is one of the best preserved men for his years in this city. His history is certainly one of extraordinary character, and his reminiscences, on which he is now engaged, will be a work of great value. In addition to this task are his occasional articles in the Tribune, and he is the oldest contributor on the records of the press.

He Wouldn't Have It.

An Aberdeen minister, when comparing the nature of the pastoral relation to that of the shepherd and his sheep, said: "My brethren, suppose me to be the shepherd and you the sheep, and Tammam Saugster, the preacher, to be the sheep-dog." Tammam, however, was not inclined to coincide in this comparison, and exclaimed, "I'll be no man's sheep-dog." Said the minister, "I'm speaking mystically." "Na, na," rejoined Tammam, "I ken fine ye wisen speakin' mystically; ye wisen speakin' maliciously, and tried to get the folk to laugh at me when we're out about."

A Queer Behest.
N. Y. Sun.

Sir Wm. Heathcote, late M. P. for Oxford University, by his will declared that if any person made tenant for life of his estates, or a tenant in tail before he comes into possession, shall join the Society of Jesus, or any order in communion with the Church of Rome, he is to forfeit his interest as though he were dead. Sir William was a moderate High Churchman.

Meritorious Marriage.
N. Y. Sun.

By far the best marriage, in point of commanding social position, made by any American lady in England in recent years, was that of Mrs. Ives, nee Motley, with Sir William Harcourt. Lady Mandeville gained higher rank, but her husband is utterly destitute of any position arising from personal merit of any kind.

BELL TONGUE SYRUP,
AN ACCIDENTAL DISCOVERY OF great value.
An Inestimable Benefit to Mankind.
UNCLE BEN JO'S
GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN PANACEA.

UNCLE BEN JO was born in Boston in 1800. Being a botanist, he effected many wonderful cures with roots and herbs. In 1844 he went to South America to study botany, and while there accidentally made his great discovery. The natives of this country were quite familiar with it, and had always supposed it to be a poisonous herb, which they used for the sole purpose of keeping snakes away from their tents or houses. This they did by laying it in a circle about the same as a proper distance off. This herb, Uncle Ben Jo, as well as the natives, considered a very obnoxious and poisonous one, and when green and fresh it threw off a very distasteful and repulsive odor. The herb grows about two feet high and about eight inches of the top part of its stalk is leafless, and this part lops over and hangs downward perpendicularly, and from its curved neck to its end it increases in size, and on the end of the same is a large, burly-looking ball, which stalk and ball is in this hanging position, looks precisely like the tongue of a bell. Hence Uncle Ben Jo named it the Bell Tongue Plant. In South America this herb is only found in the extreme interior of the country, and the natives there call it "Zarr Zeno." It is a wonderful cure of kidney and liver diseases, also, dyspepsia, neuralgia and rheumatism. We have a whole library full of testimonials. Sold by OSBURN & SHOEMAKER, Reno, Nev.

THAT "OUTRAGEOUS" CHARGE.

The shorthand reporter's bills for reporting the late lamented examination form quite a curious study in these days of high wages.

The defendants agreed to pay him $10 per day and expenses. They paid him $300, which was reckoned upon the basis of ten days' work at $20 per day, that sum to include expenses.

If, then, we take the same basis and consider that he worked ten days, his total demands amounted to $111.50 per day, or, with 7 hours to a working day, $15.93 per hour.

If we credit him with 18 days' work, the actual number of days in court, his demands amounted to $85.76 per day. During six of these days he worked 3 1/2 hours per day, the number of hours in court was 70 and the pay asked $15.93 per hour.

If we allow him 17 days, the total number from his first appearance until the depositions were returned in their present novel and incomplete form, Mr. Osborne's demands, as made through the Justice and District Attorney amount to $65.58 per day, or $9.37 per hour.

The same reporter since officiated at the Hennessey trial in Virginia and his bill was put in for $15 per day, and $45 expenses, which the Commissioners consider excessive.

The first parties defendant desired to waive their examination, which would have been according to law, and saved the "outrageous charge" in toto.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

There is a good deal of hilarity on the back seats about the GAZETTE's different styles of advertising. It may increase the agitation when we inform the small papers back there that the GAZETTE's circulation has doubled every year since it started, and will double again in 1882.

The advance sheets of McKinney's new Directory are out. The GAZETTE has the handsomest page in the book. In the upper right-hand corner is a photograph of the daily and in the lower left corner is a map of Reno and the country for 200 miles on every side.

"Keep your mouth shut!" thundered Judge Cox; "I won't do it!" thundered Assessor Charles Jules Guitau. The prisoner then goes into the Beecher scandal with great zest.

The Reno Journal thinks the Central Pacific Railroad Company is entitled to credit for having submitted, without opposition to the raising of their assessment to $9,000 per mile.

Talmage says hell is strewn with tobacco leaves. Then people who are bound in that direction can comfort themselves with the thought that there are no moths there. But does Talmage know?

We have received, with the compliments of Hon. Rollin M. Daggett, a copy of Mint Director Buchard's report on the production of precious metals in the United States for 1890.

The Career of a Wild Train.

TUCSON, November 28.

This morning at 9 o'clock, while switching cars at the yard, a coupling broke and four cars, one heavily loaded with steel rails, became detached and moved off down grade to the west. The office at Casa Grande was wired and ordered to hold the passenger train and throw open the switch. The passenger train, with A. N. Towne special attached, was just moving out when the news came, and thus saved them, for in one hour and twenty minutes the cars went dashing into Casa Grande, a distance of sixty-five miles, striking the freight cars on the switch, completely demolishing them and snapping the steel rails in small pieces.

The Hopkins' Estate.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 28.

Samuel S. Hopkins has petitioned the Superior Court to revoke the letters of administration on the estate of Mark Hopkins issued to Moses Hopkins, on the ground that the latter has failed to file a bond for $13,000,000. The Court gave Moses Hopkins until next Saturday to show cause why the letters should not be revoked.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

Press Dispatches to EVENING GAZETTE.

EASTERN.

Another Field Day for Assassins Guitau.

WASHINGTON, November 28. The Criminal Court room was crowded this morning. At 10 o'clock Mrs. Scoville resumed her testimony. She said she was convinced in 1878 that Guitau was insane and should be put in an asylum. Frequent objections were raised by counsel for the prosecution, to the character of the questions propounded by Scoville, and a continuous discussion ensued between counsel upon the admission of certain evidence.

Witness does not understand the rules of evidence, gentlemen, said Scoville.

"Yes, but you are supposed to," was the reply.

Witness was asked if she had ever before been upon a witness stand, and replied with much emphasis: "No, and I'm no lawyer either."

Mrs. Scoville's cross examination was postponed to allow George D. Burrows, of Chicago, to testify.

At the time Guitau visited Scoville in 1878, witness made up his mind the prisoner was either a fool or crazy; he was satisfied Guitau was unsettled in intellect.

There was a brief interval before the next witness appeared and Guitau took advantage of the opportunity and broke out with:

GUITAU DON'T SHUT UP.

I desire to tell all these crank newspaper men that I appear here as my own counsel. That is my answer to all the silly stuff they have been delivering themselves of for some days past. Some of these newspaper men have gone crazy. I appear here in part as my own counsel, as I have a right to do under the law and Constitution of America.

No effort was made to check Guitau, and no notice whatever of the interruption was taken by the Court. P. S. Joselyn, of the Omaha Community, thought Guitau's marked characteristic was intense egotism.

John W. Guitau, brother of the prisoner, had no doubt of his sanity until he received some letters in October. Since coming here he was satisfied he was insane.

On being cross examined the witness admitted that he had always, in talking of the case, said he believed his brother was responsible. He thought that at some period of his life the prisoner had voluntarily surrendered himself to evil practices rather than good.

GUITAU'S SECOND SPEECH.

Guitau winced under these statements, evidently fearing his brother's candor would injure his case, and with considerable bitterness interrupted.

"My brother and I have not been on good terms for fifteen years. The last time I saw my brother in Boston we had some angry words, so he does not come here to testify for me with the ordinary force with which a brother usually does come."

"I am glad to find he has changed his views, however, in my case. I want the public to understand about this."

Guitau continued to interrupt, explain and correct the witness. Once Judge Davidge attempted to stop him, but he waved his hand imperiously, saying:

"You keep quiet, Judge, if you please."

Shortly afterwards the witness was asked, in connection with the incident related, if he had at that time thought the prisoner insane.

Guitau quickly anticipated his reply by saying: "Why, of course he has always thought I was badly cracked."

The witness said that he had never detected the slightest traces of insanity in his father.

South American Affairs.

NEW YORK, November 28.

A Times' Washington special says: The South American situation continues to attract much attention here. From a remark made by one of the most prominent members of the next House it is certain that the State Department will be called on for copies of the instructions to Ministers Hurlbut and Kilpatrick, and all correspondence relating to Peruvian affairs.

No Rent in New York.

NEW YORK, November 28.

The central organization of the United Labor Union of New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City, yesterday expressed unqualified approval of the manifesto "No rent" for land, because it was the gift of the Creator to his creatures.

Aid and Advice for the Jews.

NEW YORK, November 28.

The Executive Committee of the National Tariff Convention at the Hebrew Orphan Asylum, resolved to take measures for the formation of a society to afford aid and advice to Jewish emigrants on their arrival, and to discourage the influx of paupers.

The Triple Line Railroad.

ST. LOUIS, November 28.

H. M. Hoxie, General Manager of the Iron Mountain, International and Great Northern and Texas and Pacific railroad, accompanied by Seth Fink, General Passenger Agent, and several other officials, left here to-day for El Paso and Laredo, where they make a preliminary arrangement for running a train from St. Louis to San Francisco.

ciaco, via the Southern Pacific from El Paso and the Mexican border at Laredo. It is expected that through cars will be run from St. Louis to San Francisco, and the Texas and Pacific will be completed and in operation by the first of January, and the International and Great Northern reach Laredo by the middle of December. The San Francisco line route will be called the "Triple Line," and be formed by the Iron Mountain, Texas and Pacific and Southern Pacific.

Abraham Lincoln's Widow.

NEW YORK, November 28.

Mrs. Abraham Lincoln at present resides at No. 39, West Twenty-sixth street, this city, where she is undergoing treatment for what is believed to be an incurable ailment. Mentally Mrs. Lincoln is active and clear.

She says this great country owes it to her to see that she is provided for in such a manner that her wants may be fully met, and there is no reason why she should not receive the same consideration at the hands of the nation that may be contemplated for another.

Mrs. Lincoln says she has not enough from Government to maintain her, and she refuses to be an object of charity with her relatives. Congress only gave her $32,500.

Her pension is only $8,000, which she accepted under compulsion and against the advice of Charles Sumner. She acquits her family as having acted with much delicacy and honor, but thinks Congress ought to make some more adequate provision for her.

Important Railroad News.

TUCSON, November 28.

A. N. Towne, Supt. S. P. R. R., J. C. Stubbs, T. H. Goodman, Arthur Brown, W. G. Curtis, Messrs. Welch and Gage, passed here en route to El Paso, where they will meet General Manager Hoxie and the officers of the Texas Pacific, and Superintendent Wheeler and the officers of the A. T. & Santa Fe, for a business conference. The S. P. and Texas Pacific railroads will unite on Tuesday or Wednesday.

Through trains from San Francisco to New Orleans will probably commence running on the 15th proximo, and regular through business will be established before the end of thirty days.

The Speakership.

NEW YORK, November 28.

The Times says of the Speakership contest: According to our Washington dispatches members of the States west of Ohio and the Potomac are united in the feeling that an Eastern man should not have the Speakership chair, the California members being particularly insistent in this regard. Hiscock, it is estimated, will have 60 votes on the first ballot, Keifer of Ohio 40 and Kasson of Iowa 20. One curiosity of the canvass is that Kasson finds his brilliant qualities and skill in parliamentary tactics a disadvantage, some of his admirers taking the ground that he cannot be spared from the floor of the House.

America's Trade with France.

WASHINGTON, November 28.

The native wine traders of this country have urged retaliation upon French wines for the unfair treatment of American pork. This would have been a perfectly justifiable aid to a deserving home interest. Certain old statutes yet in force might have been used with telling force against the importation of French wines, but a reluctance to injure the large American interests concerned in the French wine trade prevented such action. Gambetta's Cabinet will put an end to the deceptive and unfair restriction upon our trade with France.

A Crank Wants to Save the World.

WASHINGTON, November 28.

A man calling himself William Stewart Hubbard or Albert Lyman registered this morning at the Arlington Hotel and again this evening at the Abbot House. He claims to be from New York. At the Abbot he called for a room and was given one. Soon after he was found stripped to the flesh, and when asked for a deposit turned over an empty purse. He said he had come here to save the world, and was to a certain extent Guitau. He said that he could solve the Garfield problem, but hadn't time, and that his intentions were foiled when he was placed behind the bars.

Guitau's Responsibility.

WASHINGTON, November 28.

A number of prominent medical experts visited Guitau in his cell yesterday, and examined him critically, with a view of informing themselves as to his true mental state. It is understood that there exists a wide difference of opinion among them regarding the responsibility of the assassin for his acts. It is said that the tone of letters recently received by the assassin shows a change of public sentiment, with more pity and sympathy, and more hope of saving him from the gallows.

Hickwagonee in Texas.

GALVESTON, November 28.

A News' San Antonio special says: The stage between San Antonio and Corpus Christi was robbed last night when three miles from Oakville by two masked men. The only passenger Frank Haney, of Echo, Tex., was relieved of a small amount of money. The mail was rifled of everything valuable and the stage allowed to proceed.

Guilty of Murder.

GALVESTON, Tex., November 28.

A News special from Wells Point says the jury in the case of the State vs. Mrs. Effie Peacock, for the murder of her husband by administering strychnine, found a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree, and assessed the punishment at Penitentiary for life. Dr. Ball, her accomplice, and perhaps abettor in the crime, was convicted and sentenced for life at a recent term of court, but escaped.

They Stood on the Platform.

PHILADELPHIA, November 28.

Last evening the horses attached to a steam fire engine ran away and crashed into a street-car, killing two men, names unknown, standing up on the back platform. Several other passengers were slightly injured. Wm. Tyson, driver of the engine, was arrested.

FOREIGN.

London Locals.

LONDON, November 28.

LeFroy has fully confessed to the murder of Gold, also that of Lieutenant Roper, assassinated in Chatham Barracks some time ago.

A heavy gale prevailed throughout the United Kingdom during Saturday and Sunday, doing serious damage to property. Nearly the whole new pier at Folkestone was washed away, and many wrecks were strewn along the coast.

The dock yard church at Sheerness has burned. Nine persons were injured.

Strikers in Austria.

VIENNA, November 28.

The colliers in the Ostrom mines, belonging to the Northern Railway, the largest mines in Austria, are on strike. At last accounts the strike was becoming serious; 1,200 men were already out and it was feared the miners from large neighboring pits would join the strikers. Besides claiming an increase of wages, they demand the dismissal of all overseers. Two companies of infantry have been sent to Ostrom.

JOTTINGS.

Mrs. Thomas has furnished rooms near the GAZETTE office. See ad.

Mrs. Frank Cook has three sunny rooms to rent corner First and West streets.

Lonkey & Smith offer $300 reward for the detection of the Verdi incendiary.

A. T. Rice has pasture on the meadows, with good hay and feed. See ad.

The Supreme Court has affirmed the judgment in the case of Bunting vs. the C. P. R. R.

Nasby has every style of Dolls. The thermometer at 7, 9, 11, 1 and 3 was 42, 47, 56, 54, 54.

A 50-cent "ad" in the GAZETTE was the means of procuring situations for six men and six boys.

Holiday presents, fine jewelry, heavy gold plate. A large stock at Hale's, corner Ninth and K streets, Sacramento.

The ladies of the Catholic Fair will publish the result of their raffles in tomorrow's GAZETTE, giving the winning number.

The Au Fait Club, of Carson, is not to be reorganized this winter. Times are too hard, and cheap dances will be the order of the season.

Many a woman dusts billiard chalk off her husband's coat and a big tear stands in her eye, as she thinks how late he works nights at his desk by the whitewashed walls.

A strong friend of St. Jacobs Oil is H. T. Duncan, of the Lexington, Kentucky, Press. He says: A short time since St. Jacobs Oil was prescribed in my own family by a regular physician, and it was used with the most satisfactory results, as usual.

The Boy Preacher.

The other churches were, in a measure, deserted last night on account of a rush to hear "Boy Harrison at the Methodist place of worship. Harrison stopped over on his way east to avoid traveling on Sunday. He dresses and combs to keep up a youthful appearance, which is distasteful to his years. He has a fine good watch and some magnetism. His talk was made up of his own history and achievements, illustrated by death-bed anecdotes in which he had taken a part. "The Boy" is not the equal of Hammond or Earl as a sensationalist.

Fire at Verdi.

A brakeman on train No. 7 gave the fire alarm at Verdi when his train arrived last night. The wood and slab pile at the mouth of Katz & Henry's flume was found to be on fire. Fire trains went from Reno and Truckee. To-day the fire was still burning. At last accounts it had consumed about 300 feet of the wood pile and flume. The fire was the work of an incendiary and seems to have been started in the middle of the wood pile. The loss can not yet be estimated.

Married.

Yesterday in Carson Sol. Levy, Reno's popular dry goods merchant, took to himself a wife in the person of the fair Miss Rose Sheyer of the capital city. The GAZETTE acknowledges receipt of the usual compliments and returns them in the form of bright wishes for the happiness of the new made man and wife.

The Winter's Harvest.

The ice companies were going to begin putting up ice to-day, but the thaw may spoil it. They were plowing at Prosser creek yesterday and the ice was about a foot thick. Ice will be put up at Essex, Cuba, Boca and Prosser creek.

Attention, Singers.

The members of Mr. Stimson's singing class, and all the singers in town, are requested to be present Tuesday evening, November 23rd, to prepare for the closing exercises of the term on Friday evening, December 2.

Pinkeye at the Junction.

The GAZETTE last week published a cure for the dreaded equine disease "Pinkeye." It behooved the horsemen to hear it in mind as the scourge has already attacked Hammond & Wilson's stock at the Junction.

NARROW GAUGE EXCURSION.

Fifteen Miles Over the New Highway to Oregon, and What the Visitors Saw.

On Saturday last through the courtesy of F. F. Fowler, Director, a large party of ladies and gentlemen were given an opportunity to inspect the Nevada & Oregon railroad as far as its present terminus. The engine Santa Cruz furnished the motive power for two flat cars and one box, loaded with rails, water and excursionists. The work of tracklaying has been completed for a distance of fifteen miles, and is still progressing rapidly. The first ten miles to the first summit north of Reno rivals the world-renowned crookedness of the V. & T. R. R. From the summit the road goes the other side, however, the road bed is quite straight for a long distance. The excursionists were impressed with the large amount of work which has been necessary on the first ten miles. Many expensive cuts, long stretches of masonry, and numerous trestles dotted the line, and all this work has been done in the very best manner. The road bed is quite smooth, and although the ascent going north is very rapid, the little engine had no difficulty in lifting its load. At the terminus the construction train was found with one car off the track. This delayed the return until 5:30, when the sight-seers reached town, having learned that it takes money to build railroads, and the road to Oregon is a healthy youngster.

Nevada News.

Wood is selling at $16 per cord at Belleville.

J. R. Middleton, the murderer of Hon. George Blair, has been sentenced from White Pine county to five years in the State Prison.

Hank Rodgers, another of the supposed robbers of the Hawthorne and Columbus stage, has been arrested at Mason valley by Deputy Sheriff W. B. Brent.

The Carson Appeal says that since his incarceration, Alf. Chartz has so thoroughly mastered the art of phonography that his ability in that line is said to be second to that of no shorthand writer on the coast.

Wabaska has become a heavy shipping point. All the freight from Mason valley and the mining districts in the neighborhood is handled there, and nearly all for the Cory district. The post office has been moved from Swasey's down to the station.

The Delayed Train.

A telegram from Colfax to the GAZETTE says: Fifteen cars on freight train No. 8 were badly wrecked just above Cape Horn. Ten cars loaded with cattle and merchandise went over the embankment, while five others were piled up on the track. The train man escaped unhurt, and comparatively few of the cattle were killed. Superintendent Pratt arrived with a wrecking car from Sacramento, and before evening the wreck will be cleared. The east and west-bound overland passenger trains transferred passengers, mails, and express matter about the wreck. A broken wheel is supposed to have caused the disaster. No. 1 will arrive here about 5:30 P. M.

Literary Society Notice.

Wholesale Liquor Store.

At the Wine House on Commercial row, E. Chielovich & Co. carry the largest stock of liquors to be found in this State. Everything which is reckoned a choice or staple article for the sideboard may be found at this establishment. The firm realizes that they are located at the future wholesale depot and supply point for the interior basin, and their business is being gradually enlarged to meet the coming demand. Chielovich claims that he can now save freight to any consumers east of the Sierra Nevada mountains, and invites an inspection of his price list. Give the Wine House a call.

Dress Making.

Mrs. E. P. Miley has laid in quite a large and very elegant stock of fancy and millinery goods. Finding her customers were particular and of good taste, she used great care in her selection. Call and examine her stock. She is also doing all kinds of dress and cloak making, and is well up in her business.

Traveling Men.

Find it hard to keep in good health, owing to the constant change of water, diet, and the jarring of the cars. All these things injure the kidneys, while Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure is certain to counteract them.

INDIAN FOOT-BALL.

The Way the Braves Put in the Holy Sabbath.

A sight that would have delighted Herbert Spencer or any student of the fast-disappearing Aboriginal tribes, passed almost unnoticed in one of Reno's public streets yesterday. It was a dozen young Pinte Indians ranging in age from 20 to 30 years, engaged in a game of foot-ball. The apparatus consisted of two large, soft balls, about four inches in diameter, made of woolen stockings, and two poles at each end of the course, which was about four hundred feet long. The poles were placed about four feet apart, and the game was won by whichever party kicked its ball to the goal ahead of the other. As the balls passed each waiting warrior, he ran after it and helped to increase the hubbub. There was very fine running, and often quite a struggle, as the balls got near together and the two parties mixed up. The players were all barefoot, with their pants rolled up to their knees, although the day was so cold that it did not thaw at all. The stakes were $4 for the best three in five.

Can This be True?

EDITOR EUREKA LEADER: Hon. G. W. Cassidy, member of Congress, has just left for Washington to assume those weighty responsibilities of which he prides himself of being in charge, for the good of the people and his chosen political ring, which, we will be the better able to judge after he has returned to his constituency.

Before leaving he confided to a few of his special friends, those whom he could trust, the consoling information that the State would go Democratic next year, and that the hold-over Senators would be elected, giving the State wholly to the Democrats; that money would be used as in the last election, and a strong ticket would be placed in the field, virtually admitting that the slate was even now made up. How do the small men of the party like to be sold by a ring of six men, and Mr. Cassidy one of that number? It is no wonder that men of each party follow such men as Mahone.

OUTSIDER.

Personals.

J. C. McTarnahan expects to become a millionaire on his placer mines in Mono county.

S. D. Fannon is doing well in Candelaria. He supplies the Candelarians now with Truckee trout.

S. S. Kimball, a newspaper man from Kankakee, Illinois, and a brother of L. E. Kimball, is visiting Reno.

The Latest Mutual Kink.

There is a new insurance racket started in San Francisco. It is a mutual affair, but not like that according to which each of the insured pays his pro rata to the heirs of the member of the association is single men, and when one of their number marries, all the rest pay the benedict a pro rata. At first flush this looks a good deal like putting married and dead men in the same category.
